Hi

Last week, our United Conservative Leader Jason Kenney spoke at a rally standing up for our pipelines in Halifax.

The perpetually outraged "green-left" tried to shut it down.

They tried to rattle Jason and the crowd who were exercising their free speech.

As you can see by the video below -- it didn't go so well for the radical protesters…

The radical "green-left" are dishonest. They fight Canadian oil and turn a blind eye to oil imports into Canada from regimes with horrible human rights records. Jason was happy to point this out, as he continues to do so throughout our country.

Our province needs a leader that stands up to these activists - not one who appoints radicals to important government positions (recall the NDP appointing Tzeporah Berman to the Oil Sands Advisory Group?).

If you agree, please chip in to the United Conservative election fund today.

Sincerely,

Erika Barootes
UCP Party President
