

Mission Accomplished for the Environmental Movement.

Elimination of employment.

The destructive policies advocated by the environmental movement will lead to the needless elimination of tens of thousands of stable jobs.

Tens of thousands unemployed!

Annihilation of companies.

The destructive policies advocated by the environmental movement will lead to the needless annihilation of thousands of stable businesses.

Thousands of business failures.

Disruption of home life.

The destructive policies advocated by the environmental movement will lead to the needless disruption of tens of thousands of stable homes.

Tens of thousands homes lost.

Destitution and despair.

The destructive policies advocated by the environmental movement will lead to needless suffering and hardship for tens of thousands of professionals.

Tens of thousands suffering.