

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

RESPONSE TO ALLEGATIONS
FROM RICHARD CLARKSON
( Ghost-Writer for 81-year-old
Kazimiera Jean Cottam )

SALMON ARM OBSERVER

AUGUST 10th, 2011

This article [ written by Enviro-Lunatic Warren Bell ] should be widely read.

It is high time in B.C. and elsewhere to reduce this unnecessary health hazard.

[ Pest control products DO NOT represent an unnecessary health hazard. ]

The Ontario ban has made a big difference, especially to people with environmental sensitivities.

[ Where are the « bodies » ? — Name ONE documented CASE. ]

Children breathe a much cleaner air and water bodies' pollution has been substantially diminished.

[ Where is the EVIDENCE ? — Name ONE documented CASE. ]

Moreover, how wonderful it is to walk your pet on a suburban street, in the knowledge that he or she is safe from exposure to toxic chemicals !

[ Researchers have visited Clarkson's home in Ottawa, and the property LOOKS LIKE A GARBAGE DUMP. ]

I nearly lost my dog in 2002 when she was dermally exposed to the commonly used, but largely untested PAR III, a combination of three herbicides, in my condominium area.

[ Where is the EVIDENCE ? — Present the documented testing from the veterinarian. ]
