

FPCOMMENT

Terence Corcoran: Suzuki brings his radical Green leftism to students, courtesy of federal government

Terence Corcoran Nov 8, 2011 – 2:00 PM ET

For a sizzling expose of the latest activities of David Suzuki as master corporate-funded propagandist, this excerpt from Ezra Levant's TV show is a zinger. Chock full of detail, including excerpts from Suzuki's appearances in schools, it's a marvelous summary of the gross inconsistencies and double-talk Suzuki has been

Over the decades, the government-funded CBC has been Suzuki's conduit to fame and fortune. In promoting a Suzuki bio-documentary — is being used to reach students in live video links. The show, The Source, has clips and commentary on Suzuki's multitude of contradictions. Carbon is good. Occupy Wall Street good. Corporations bad—except, presumably, the ones who give to Suzuki.

Some Suzukiisms, delivered to teenagers in schools:

I am very, very excited about the Occupy movement, because it seems to be a continuation of

In their Occupy movement, they are beginning to point out the enormous inequities in a democracy where corporations have so much influence on affecting government policy?

Corporations are what are putting money into supporting political candidates. Rich people provide the money for supporting political candidates, and so when they get into office, they then, the politicians, thank the people that are giving them money." The federal government banned corporate and union donations to political candidates in 2006.

Watch Ezra Levant as he cuts through it all.

Posted in: FP Comment Tags: David Suzuki, Ezra Levant

TERENCE CORCORAN

fpleters@nationalpost.com

Terence Corcoran: The energy superpower that isn't

Terence Corcoran: Pro – Greece's chance to vote out welfare statism and save Europe

Terence Corcoran – NGDP targeting: the very latest econo-fad

Terence Corcoran: Papal call for global authority

Terence Corcoran: Inflated sense of self

What do you think?

Opinions expressed in comments that appear on our site are expressly those of the comment writer and not the Financial Post. Offensive allegations are not allowed and may result in your account being banned. Comments containing links are not permitted. Comment threads a our full Terms and Conditions. If you see a typo or error in this story, feel free to report it to us.

New to the site?

To leave a comment, you need to Sign Up.

Already a member?

To comment, please Sign In.

Showing 3 comments

WolfyW

Another radical who should get zero funding and zero attention.

1 hour ago 1 Like

Jim Thompson B210

Don't throw the baby out with the bathwater. Get rid of the nature of things not the CBC. There is a place for a National tv. Keep radio one and two, AS THEY USED TO BE, and newsworld. lose reg TV. All they do is hockey, Mercer and rubbish!

7 hours ago 3 Likes

hikeandski

Just another reason that government funding of CBC must stop. The socialistic/communistic programs and people sho "global warmers" not from taxpayers.

Either stop funding or enforce legislation for "full, true and plain" disclosure for all broadcasting, with huge fines, long funds (pensions, advertising, "research" funds, etc) or holding public office for any breach; just like officers of publicly l

7 hours ago 6 Likes

 Subscribe by email  RSS

blog comments powered by DISQUS

© 2011 National Post, a division of Postmedia Network Inc. All rights reserved. Unauthorized distribution, transmission or republication strictly prohibited.