Weed control products

Fiesta™, the new iron chelate has been available for several weeks now.

I have had a chance to do some weed counts this spring on plots that were treated with Fiesta™ last fall.

It appears [that with the exception of] dandelions and black medick, that there is considerable re-growth of these weed species, back to similar levels before treatment.

In the fall, Fiesta™ was only applied once to the plots and it may be that at that time of year, two applications are necessary.

There are more research trials being conducted this spring at Guelph Turfgrass Institute to try to get a handle on the re-growth of broadleaf weeds after treatment with Fiesta™.

More Sarritor is being applied now. If it was applied late last week, the weather has been cooperating with all of the rain and cool temperatures this weekend giving the ideal conditions for Sarritor.

Again, I welcome feedback on this management update. You can reach me by phone or email at (519-824-4120 x 52597) or by email at pamela.charbonneau@ontario.ca
