KEVIN CROSS FINED $12,000 FOR USING BANNED PESTICIDES

KINGSTON – On September 30, 2010, Kevin Cross was fined $12,000 for using, causing, or permitting the use in, on, or over land of a pesticide, contrary to amendments made under the Pesticides Act.

The Court heard that Mr. Cross owns a lawn care and pest control company in Kingston. From May to August 2009, the ministry had received reports that the company had been applying banned herbicides to three residential properties.

Mr. Cross was charged following an investigation by the ministry's Investigations and Enforcement Branch.

Mr. Cross was fined $12,000 plus a victim fine surcharge and was given one year to pay the fine.
