Cavers tables pesticide ban motion for now City will wait for info from Province

Last Updated: Tuesday, February 14th, 2012 | 4:04pm PST

Story by: Sandy Hall

Kamloops Councillor Donovan Cavers has put off his push to ban cosmetic pesticides within city limits.-- for now. Cavers withdrew his motion saying he intends to bring it back once it's clear what the province is planning on the issue.

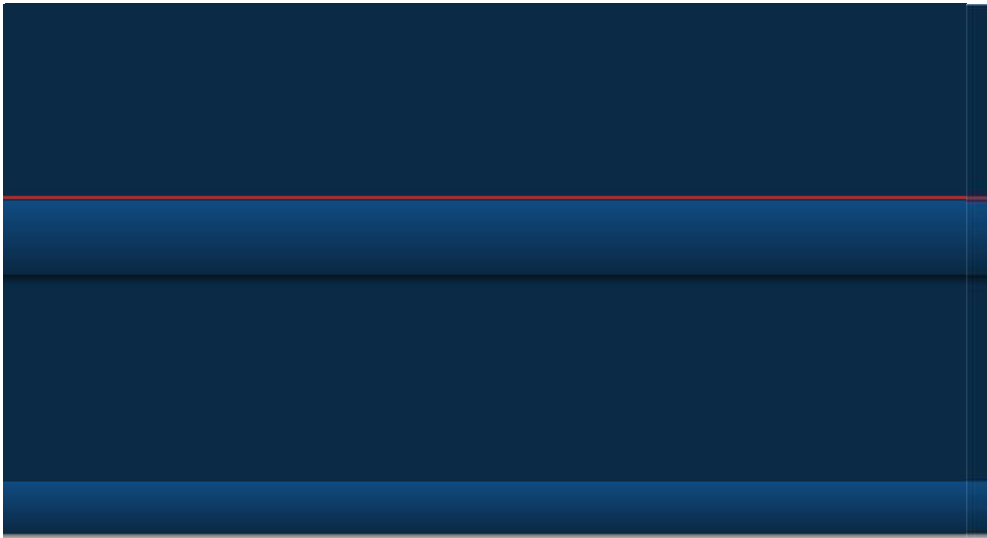

Council did vote unanimously to request information from the province as to the status of its efforts to review pesticide legislation.
