CITY COUNCIL

The City of Kelowna is governed by an elected council, a mayor and eight councillors, who are elected for three-year terms. Each member of council represents the city at large.

Regular meetings are scheduled Monday afternoons at 1:30 p.m. in Council Chambers at City Hall. During July and August these meetings are scheduled every two weeks. Regular meetings, as well as public hearings on development applications, are also held every second Tuesday at 6 p.m. Meetings are open to the public.

Council meetings and public hearings are broadcast live (audio only) on castanet.net. Monday afternoon meetings are re-broadcast on Cable 11 Wednesdays and Fridays at 11 a.m. Agendas and minutes of Council meetings are available on the City's website kelowna.ca.

Kelowna City Council regularly meets Monday mornings to discuss in-camera business as permitted under the Community Charter. To address Council, contact the City Clerk's Office at 250 469-8645.

REMUNERATION

Mayor of Kelowna

$85,798 annually, effective Jan 1, 2008
(one-third is non-taxable)

Councillors

$28,313 annually, effective Jan 1, 2008
(one-third is non-taxable)

Councillors receive an additional $350 per month (one-third non-taxable) when acting as Deputy Mayor. Councillors serve as Deputy Mayor on a monthly rotating basis.

Salaries are subject to an annual increase based on the change in the consumer price index from the previous year. The decision to review salaries is made by City Council and an independent consultant is chosen to conduct the review. Salaries were last reviewed in 2008.

COUNCIL COMMITTEES

The City has many different committees which provide recommendations on a wide range of programs, policies and services. Most committees have Council representation. Council Committees include:

Accessibility Advisory Committee
Advisory Planning Commission
Agricultural Advisory Committee
Airport Advisory Committee
Community Heritage Commission
Housing Committee
Public Art Committee
Women's & Community Advisory

The City of Kelowna also has Council representation on a number of independent committees:
