American foundations are NOT supposed to mobilize voters in a foreign country.

Over the past year, I have been going through the tax returns of American charitable foundations in order to figure out ...

WHO IS FUNDING THE ENVIRONMENTAL MOVEMENT IN CANADA, AND WHY ?

So far, I have traced about 300 MILLION DOLLARS over the past decade that has been paid to various green groups, mostly in British Columbia.

Tides Canada and Tides Foundation USA

By far, the largest British-Columbia-based recipient organization is TIDES CANADA, which has been paid nearly 60 MILLION DOLLARS by U.S. foundations, tax returns say.

The [ENVIRO-LUNATIC] MAYOR OF THE CITY OF VANCOUVER, GREGOR ROBERTSON, is no stranger to Tides Canada.

In fact, GREGOR ROBERTSON was a Tides Canada DIRECTOR from 2002 until 2004 when he entered politics with the provincial NEW DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

[New Democratic Party functions as the national and provincial POLITICAL SHIELD for the Environmental–Terrorist–Movement.]

In 2008, the [ENVIRO–LUNATIC] MAYOR OF THE CITY OF VANCOUVER, GREGOR ROBERTSON, won the municipal election thanks to financing from Tides USA.

In the run–up to the 2008 municipal election, Vision Vancouver’s BIGGEST FINANCIAL BACKER was the FORMER CHAIR of Tides USA, Joel Solomon.

In a rather candid interview last year, Solomon told the Huffington Post that the election of Robertson was the result of « nearly 20 years of moving in a purposeful direction ».

The TREASURER of Vision Vancouver, Martha Burton, also has a long history as a SENIOR ADVISER to Tides Canada.

[Vision Vancouver is one of three parties represented on Vancouver City Council, under the leadership of Enviro–Lunatic Mayor GREGOR ROBERTSON. It operates as the municipal POLITICAL SHIELD for the Environmental–Terrorist–Movement.]

Mike Magee, the chief of staff at Vancouver City Hall, was also a SENIOR ADVISER to Tides Canada (2002 to 2007).

Bullitt Foundation and Tides Foundation USA

In digging through U.S. tax returns and other records, one of the things that I have noticed is that the Seattle-based BULLITT FOUNDATION and the San Francisco-based TIDES FOUNDATION have PROVIDED FUNDS TO SUPPORT VISION VANCOUVER'S GREEN AGENDA.

Through Tides USA, Bullitt granted 50,000 DOLLARS in 2010 « for expenses associated with the establishment of a fund to enable Vancouver, British Columbia, to realize its vision of becoming the greenest city in the world. »

This money will be used to work with the Vancouver Foundation and the City of Vancouver, Tides Canada announced in a press release earlier this year.

Tar Sands Campaign

One of the larger projects of Tides USA is a « Tar Sands Campaign » AGAINST ALBERTA OIL.

In 2009 and 2010, Tides USA paid 10 MILLION DOLLARS to 43 small, environmental groups for their involvement in this campaign, tax returns show.

Tides USA and Tides Canada also spend roughly 20 million DOLLARS annually on consultants, 15 MILLION DOLLARS and 5 MILLION DOLLARS, respectively.

American foundations are NOT supposed to mobilize voters in a foreign country but through Tides USA, Bullitt Foundation granted 30,000 DOLLARS to the Dogwood Initiative « ... to mobilize urban voters for a federal ban on coastal tankers ... »

NO OIL TANKER TRAFFIC MEANS NO OIL EXPORTS TO ASIA.

That would also mean that the U.S. gets a continued MONOPOLY on Canadian oil exports — all in the name of PROTECTING THE ENVIRONMENT.

Shortly after I testified about this grant to a House of Commons standing committee last fall, the Bullitt Foundation quietly rewrote it — « Bullitt doesn't accept unsolicited proposals ».

In other words, Bullitt has its own ideas.

Bullitt Foundation USA

Over the past decade, Bullitt Foundation has paid [TO ENVIRONMENTAL-TERRORIST-ORGANIZATIONS] ...

David Suzuki Foundation — 930,000 DOLLARS

Ecojustice Canada — 734,000 DOLLARS

Ecotrust Canada — 405,000 DOLLARS

West Coast Environmental Law Research Foundation — 428,000 DOLLARS

Georgia Straight Alliance — 360,000 DOLLARS

Bullitt Foundation also paid 564,000 DOLLARS to Tides USA for re–granting for various projects of Tides Canada, the Dogwood Initiative, and the Tye Solutions Society.

In 2010–2011 Bullitt Foundation paid the Vancouver–based Pembina Institute for Appropriate Development 85,000 DOLLARS « to accelerate commercialization and deployment of electric vehicles as a part of a sustainable transportation system in Vancouver and the Lower Mainland ».

Bullitt Foundation also paid 70,000 DOLLARS to the Canadian Society Promoting Environmental Conservation (SPEC).

That included 32,000 DOLLARS in 2006 « to prevent highway expansion and bridge construction in the Lower Mainland » and a further 25,000 DOLLARS in 2007 « to continue building a diverse coalition to advocate for transit and oppose efforts to widen Highway 1 and build a second bridge across the Fraser River ».

In 2008, Bullitt Foundation paid the Dogwood Initiative 30,000 DOLLARS « to strengthen and enforce a 34-year moratorium on oil tanker traffic in the mid- and north coast of British Columbia, and to prevent expansion of oil and gas infrastructure in Georgia Strait and the lower Fraser Basin ».

Indeed, if the agenda of the Bullitt Foundation is to BLOCK INFRASTRUCTURE DEVELOPMENT in the Lower Mainland, it wouldn't hurt to have the Vancouver mayor and council on side.
