Top 7 Greenpeace FAILS

MARCH 20, 2015

THE REBEL STAFF

Just last week, Saguenay, Quebec mayor Jean Tremblay, called out Greenpeace as "a bunch of job killers".

Even Liberal premier Philippe Couillard took a shot at the slime coloured activists, saying if Greenpeace thinks they're going to destroy his province's forestry industry, "They can forget it." The Rebel staff present 7 epic Greenpeace fails...

1. Overboard "Man Overboard!"... we doubt too many on deck were shouting this when the green fanatic fell head over teakettle into the great blue sea.

2. Boat Flipped The activists learned the hard way not to mess with Russia's Gazprom after they were caught in a trap flipping their boat.

3. Collision 1 The Spanish Navy is apparently not fans of the green crusade either. They go full throttle pounding the radicals boat head on.

4. Collision 2 The Spanish Navy always get their man... or woman... as the Spaniards continue their pursuit of ramming more Greenpeace extremists in a fight over oil near the Canary Islands.

5. Hosed The activists probably aren't going to like that Ezra had a tuna sandwich for lunch. The green lovers get hosed as they fight for the rights of the bluefin tuna.

6. Punch You gotta kinda feel bad for this shamrock as he tries to board a fishing boat he's quickly taught that he's entering the octagon.

7. Ancient Peruvian Landmark One of the most famous Greenpeace fails is when they trampled all over Peru's ancient landmark the Nazca Lines. They damaged the 1,500-year-old carving creating a public relations disaster and showing the world the hypocrites they can be.

There is a time for activism and a time for unions but when it is combined with extremism it loses boarder support.

Marjorie said, "Greenpeace is an evil organization". I agree, but Greenpeace members think their moral superiority gives them free license to do whatever they want. They can't see their own evil and don't care about the damage they do which they think is for the greater good of Humankind.

I completely agree with Marjorie, Marty and Jeff. But like I said in my post on the previous story, one thing there doesn't seem to be a shortage of in this world, is stupid people! I could save myself a lot of time and effort in constantly trying to come up with new content, if I would just Copy and Paste that one sentence on all future reports.

People have to realize sooner or later that a peaceful protest isn't JUST non-violent. A peaceful protest DOESN'T BREAK THE PEACE... no trespassing, no property damage, no public blockades, no interfering with workers. It's time to start passing the costs onto those guilty of breaking the peace... both policing & prosecution.

Marjorie Spacek, what you say is true, however these thugs are funded by some of the elite in western society, some of the richest people in the USA and also Canada. If we could somehow stop Greenpeace from receiving the millions they get, we would see them fade into the dark.

Just saying.

MARJORIE SPACEK commented 1 day ago (2015-03-20T20:27:57Z)

When did it become acceptable for some people to behave as pirates, endangering the lives of fishermen and other workers at sea or on ice floes? I have never been able to grasp how our society allowed these types of behaviour to prevail and to be labelled “charitable!” Greenpeace is an evil organization that repeatedly over the years has attacked the hard-working poor of many countries, and indigenous peoples wherever Greenpeace felt like imperiling lives. They are racketeers.
