

Gary Gadd v. Bayer and Monsanto

REFERENCE :

No description

COMPLAINT DATE :

May 16, 2019

STATUS :

Not judged

PLACE OF JURISDICTION :

Canada, Regina, Saskatchewan

PLAINTIFFS TYPES :

Farmers

PLAINTIFFS NAMES :

Gary Gadd

DEFENDANTS :

Monsanto, Bayer

LAWYERS :

Tony Merchant

CASE NATURE :

No description

SPECIFICITIES :

Class action

PRODUCTS :

Herbicide, Glyphosate, Roundup

REQUESTS :

Get compensation for the people who were wronged and alert the farm world that this is a dangerous product that needs to be handled carefully.

NAME OF THE COURT :

Queen's Bench Court of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada

JURISDICTION LEVEL :

Court

SUMMARY :

Following the use of Roundup herbicide on his farm in the province of Saskatchewan, the plaintiff developed a non-Hodgkin's lymphoma in 2014. He decided to file a complaint against Bayer and its subsidiary Monsanto with other plaintiffs (class action).

SCIENTIFIC REFERENCES :

No scientific reference for this case.

RELATED LINKS :

Saskatchewan farmer at centre of class action lawsuit blaming weed killer for cancer (ANG)

(<https://globalnews.ca/news/5286779/saskatchewan-farmer-lawsuit-weedkiller-cancer/>)

Sask. farmer lead plaintiff in class action over Roundup cancer claim (ANG)

(<https://www.cbc.ca/news/canada/saskatchewan/merchant-roundup-class-action-monsanto-1.5138038>)

Sask. farmer leads class-action lawsuit alleging Roundup caused his cancer (ANG) (<https://www.ctvnews.ca/health/sask-farmer-leads-class-action-lawsuit-alleging-roundup-caused-his-cancer-1.4426068>)

© 2022 Justice Pesticides (<https://justicepesticides.org/en/>)