About (Project Management)

Mr. McCaffrey was first exposed to Project Management in the late '70's while a student at the University of Guelph. This was a soft skills course using long tables and "butcher block" paper for the production of gantt charts. Since graduating from Guelph, Mr. McCaffrey has managed projects in four different industries.

Mr. McCaffrey is currently President of ALL-THINGS COMputers Inc. where his time is spent teaching computer softwares, developing software applications and managing the company. His clientele includes both private and public sector corporations in the Montreal - Toronto corridor. He also conducts pro - bono speaking engagements to non - profit organizations in the National Capital area. (Any free time is devoted to his four daughters and family.)
